Heading towards the Mansion.

JASON

In cover outside the Mansion
Jason is engaged in a conversation with his handler Joseph about the situation awaiting him at the mansion.

JASON

Looking for information regarding the mission ahead.

VERSION 1: So what am I up against?

JOSEPH

VERSION 1: Well to start, the Governor's bedroom door is reinforced with steel.

JASON

VERSION 1: One of those guys huh?

JOSEPH

VERSION 1: Yeah. He's got soldiers running tight patrols throughout the area. Plus, significant locations like his office have permanent guards posted. You'll have to look for your own way. There's too many guards to be able to predict an entrance.

JASON

VERSION 1: That's fine. Shouldn't be an issue.

JASON

VERSION 2: So what are my odds?

JOSEPH

VERSION 2: They've been better. The Governor's bedroom door is reinforced with steel to start, soldiers are running tight shifts of the entire compound, and important areas like his office have permanent guards. You'll have to find your own way in because this is locked down pretty tight.

JASON

VERSION 2: Good to know. Keep me posted.

JASON

VERSION 3: What's it look like?

JOSEPH

VERSION 3: There are guards all over the place. Security is tightly run, with stationary guards posted at important locations like his office. Even his bedroom door is reinforced with steel.

JASON

VERSION 3: Well this should be interesting.

JASON

VERSION 4: Level with me.

JOSEPH

VERSION 4: This isn't going to be a walk in the park. There are soldiers running tight patrols all over, with stationary guards at key locations such as the governor's office.

JASON

VERSION 4: Ok. Anything else?

JOSEPH

VERSION 4: Yeah, the door to the governor's bedroom is reinforced with steel, so there's no way you can break it down without being heard.

JASON

VERSION 4: Thanks for the tip. Let's do this.

JASON

VERSION 5: What am I up against?

JOSEPH

VERSION 5: He's got soldiers running patrols all over the place. You're going to have to be careful.

JASON

VERSION 5: Noted. What else.

JOSEPH

VERSION 5: There are guards stationed at significant locations like his office, and his bedroom doors are reinforced with steel.

JASON

VERSION 5: Interesting. I'll keep that in mind.

JASON

VERSION 6: What's security like?

JOSEPH

VERSION 6: Pretty tight. There are soldiers all over the place. The place is pretty well covered, but I'm sure there's an opening somewhere.

JASON

VERSION 6: There always is. What else?

JOSEPH

VERSION 6: Soldiers are stationed at significant locations like the governor's office, and his bedroom doors have been reinforced with steel plates.

JASON

VERSION 6: Pretty tight indeed. This should be interesting.

JASON

VERSION 7: So how bad is it?

JOSEPH

VERSION 7: It's been better. The Governor has soldiers doing patrols all over the building, and has stationary guards at vital locations like his office.

JASON

VERSION 7: Alright. Is that it?

JOSEPH

VERSION 7: One tip, the doors to the governor's bedroom have been reinforced with steel plates.

JASON
VERSION 7: Interesting. Thanks for the heads up.

M02_Locate the Governor's Office

JASON
Looking for information now that he's inside the mansion.

JASON
Seconds after entering the mansion

VERSION 1: I'm in.

JOSEPH

VERSION 1: Intel says the office is located in the northeast corner of the building on the third floor.

JASON
VERSION 1: Got it.

JASON

VERSION 2: Now what?

JOSEPH

VERSION 2: The office is in the northeast corner of the building. Third floor.

JASON
VERSION 2: I'm on it.

JASON

VERSION 2: Inside.

JOSEPH

VERSION 2: His office is the northeast corner on the third floor. Be on your toes.

JASON

VERSION 2: Roger.

JASON

VERSION 3: Where to boss?

JOSEPH

VERSION 3: Northeast corner of the third floor, that's where his office is.

JASON

VERSION 3: Ten Four.

JASON

VERSION 4: What's next?

JOSEPH

VERSION 4: Go to the Governor's office in the northeast corner of the building. Third floor.

JASON

VERSION 4: Sounds good.

JASON

VERSION 5: Location breached.

JOSEPH

VERSION 5: Head to the third floor. The governor's office is in the northeast corner.

JASON

VERSION 5: On my way.

JASON

VERSION 6: Where to now?

JOSEPH

VERSION 6: The Governor's office is in the northeast corner on the third floor.

JASON

VERSION 6: No problem.

JASON

VERSION 7: Where's the next location?

JOSEPH

VERSION 7: On the third floor. His office is in the northeast corner.

JASON

VERSION 7: Be there in no time.

M02_Search the Governor's office

JASON

Informing Joseph he has entered the governor's office

JASON

VERSION 1: I'm in. The standard routine?

JOSEPH

VERSION 1: Pretty much. Search for incriminating files and hack into his computer for evidence.

JASON

VERSION 2: I'm in. Shake it down?

JOSEPH

VERSION 2: Just like in Moscow. Search for physical documents then hack his computer for evidence.

JASON

VERSION 2: I'm in. Shake it down?

JOSEPH

VERSION 2: Just like in Moscow. Search for physical documents then hack his computer for evidence.

JASON

VERSION 3: In the office. This place is nice.

JOSEPH

VERSION 3: What did you expect from this guy? Search high and low for evidence, then hack his computer. We don't want to miss anything.

JASON

VERSION 4: This guy's office sure is nice. I guess that's what you get for such corruption.

JOSEPH

VERSION 4: No kidding. Comb the place until you find some evidence to nail this bastard. And don't forget to search his computer files too.

JASON

VERSION 5: For a minor political bully this guy sure has a nice place.

JOSEPH

VERSION 5: That's what you get when you're involved with illegal business deals. Search everywhere for that evidence, and don't forget to hack the computer for files too.

JASON

VERSION 6: This office is decked out. At least he's got nice taste.

JOSEPH

VERSION 6: Not enough to justify his actions though. Get some evidence linking him to his crimes. We'll take government papers and computer files alike.

JASON

VERSION 7: I made it.

JOSEPH

VERSION 7: Good. Grab some evidence to nail this guy with. Search for papers as well as computer files. We don't want to miss anything.

FAILING TO HACK THE COMPUTER.

JASON

VERSION 1: That's unusual.

JOSEPH

VERSION 1: It looks like he's got some pretty heavy security here, probably acquired from Asgard. We could hack it, but that would take all night. You're better off looking for the encryption key to unlock it.

JASON

VERSION 1: Any ideas where it would be?

JOSEPH

VERSION 1: Knowing this guy, he probably sleeps with it around his neck. Get to his bedroom on the second floor.

JASON

VERSION 2: Access denied. He's got some intense protection here.

JOSEPH

VERSION 2: Yeah. Hacking it would take too long. You should look for the encryption key to unlock it.

JASON

VERSION 2: And where would that be?

JOSEPH

VERSION 2: If I had to guess, I'd say he keeps it on his person at all times. His bedroom is on the second floor you should probably start there.

JASON

VERSION 2: Got it.

JASON

VERSION 3: I'm locked out.

JOSEPH

VERSION 3: That's surprising. I didn't think he'd be that worried about digital security as well. Asgard gave this to him no doubt. Looking at this it seems like your best option is to get the encryption key to unlock it. And if I had to guess I'd say that he has it either in his bedroom, or on his person.

JASON

VERSION 3: Makes sense knowing this guy.

JOSEPH

VERSION 3: The bedroom is on the second floor. Good luck.

JASON

VERSION 3: Thanks.

JASON

VERSION 4: I can't crack his computer.

JOSEPH

VERSION 4: Wow, he's got some solid security here. Hacking it would take all night, so you're better off unlocking it with the encryption key.

JASON

VERSION 4: Where can I find it?

JOSEPH

VERSION 4: It's probably with him at all times, meaning it's in his bedroom on the second floor.

JASON

VERSION 4: Alright. They never make it easy do they?

JASON

VERSION 5: Denied. I can't break it this way.

JOSEPH

VERSION 5: His security system looks surprisingly good. He probably got this from Asgard.

JASON

VERSION 5: No doubt. How can I break it?

JOSEPH

VERSION 5: The easiest way is with the security key. Knowing the governor's paranoia, he probably sleeps with it. His bedroom's on the second floor.

JASON

VERSION 5: Okay, that's where I'll go.

JASON

VERSION 6: It won't let me in.

JOSEPH

VERSION 6: Interesting. His security system is quite powerful. Technology acquired from Asgard no doubt.

JASON

VERSION 6: Probably. What do I do about it?

JOSEPH

VERSION 6: There should be a security key that unlocks it, and I'll bet a million bucks that the Governor has it on him right now.

JASON

VERSION 6: Ha, knowing his brand of paranoia you're probably right. Where is he?

JOSEPH

VERSION 6: His bedroom's on the second floor. Go get him tiger.

JASON

VERSION 7: It's not letting me in.

JOSEPH

VERSION 7: That's one tough cookie alright. I'll bet it's a present from Asgard. There's still a way in though.

JASON

VERSION 7: What do I do?

JOSEPH

VERSION 7: Go the governor's bedroom on the second floor and find the encryption key. It's just a hunch, but he probably keeps it on his person at all times.

JASON

VERSION 7: Better than nothing. Alright I'm on it.
